Important Beneficiary Information

To ensure that any assets you have remaining in your account at your death are distributed according to your wishes, it is important that you provide as much information as possible about each of your beneficiaries. If we cannot locate your beneficiaries upon your death, your assets will be disbursed to your estate.

The IRS has certain rules governing disbursement of funds to beneficiaries. For example, some plans require that a spouse be named primary beneficiary unless he/she waives his/her rights. These rules are outlined in your employer's plan and in ICMA-RC's Participant and Beneficiary Withdrawal Packets. Please be sure to review this information thoroughly before designating beneficiaries on this form.

If you choose more than one beneficiary without indicating percentages, or if the percentages you allocate to your beneficiaries combined do not total 100%, we will allocate equal percentages totaling 100%.

Primary Beneficiary(ies)

You may designate one or more persons to receive your assets upon your death. Be sure to use only whole percentages.

Contingent Beneficiary(ies)

If none of your primary beneficiaries are living upon your death, your assets will be distributed to your contingent beneficiary(ies). You may specify one or several persons. Be sure to use only whole percentages.

If there is not enough space to add your beneficiaries, you may attach a separate sheet if necessary. Please check the appropriate box to indicate which type(s) of beneficiary you are changing, and write "see attached sheet" in the box(es) under "Name of Beneficiary".

Note: If a Social Security Number is not provided for beneficiaries, and/or ICMA-RC cannot locate the named beneficiaries, the account balance will be paid to your estate.

SPECIAL CERTIFICATION FOR PARTICIPANTS IN COMMUNITY PROPERTY STATES

If you are married and live in a Community Property state, you must generally name your spouse as your beneficiary, unless your spouse waives this right. ICMA-RC cannot be responsible for an employee's failure to properly designate a beneficiary in accordance with state law requirements and the employee's failure to provide the certification required by this enrollment process. Please be advised that failure to meet state law requirements with respect to your beneficiary designation may result in your beneficiary designation being invalid, and the payment of benefits to someone other than your designated beneficiary. If you choose to name a beneficiary that is not your spouse, you and your spouse will need to complete the Community Property Spousal Waiver form. Contact 1-800-669-7400 for more information and to request the waiver form.
